

CWJC UPDATE

Summer 2024

RIBBON CUTTING

We had a great turn out for the ribbon cutting for the Heights. CWJC along with 14 other nonprofits now located on one campus making it a one stop shop for those in need of our services. If you haven't seen our new location, give us a call and schedule a visit.

CLASS CHANGES

The evening classes for the 2024 fall session will be expanding to three nights a week, Monday Tuesday and Thursdays from 6-9 pm. This will give the evening participant an opportunity to get the full training curriculum as the day classes.

NTGD

Save the date, September 19, 2024. North Texas Giving Day is one of two major fundraisers CWJC participates in. Money raised in this event helps fund our program cost and allows us to keep our program free of charge. This year's goal is $15,000.

GIVING WOMEN A HAND UP NOT A HAND OUT

THANK YOU

I just want to take a moment and thank all of you who support CWJC in so many ways. We could not do what we do without the hard work and dedication of our volunteer teachers, mentors, board of directors, our prayer warriors, and financial supporters. We are grateful for all you do to help us give women of Ellis County a hand up not a hand out. Thank You, Lauri

KELLY PATE

We would like to welcome Kelly Pate to our volunteer teaching staff. Kelly is a retired librarian/teacher after 37 years with Dallas ISD. Kelly will be leading the day leadership class this semester. We are so excited to have her on our team.

BOARD MEMBERS NEEDED

CWJC will be having three board vacancies at the end of 2024. If you have a passion to help women and are interested in possibly serving on our board contact Lauri Henderson at 972-937-6620 or lauri@elliscwjc.life
